

Counseling and Therapy in Video Library

Alexander Street's Counseling and Therapy in Video Library provides an invaluable firsthand look at the realities of working with clients and the challenges associated with putting theoretical concepts into practice. This series contains more than 2,400 hours of footage from actual therapy sessions, training videos, workshops, and reenactments conducted by renowned counseling professionals. Besides video, the Library also has 45,000 pages of eBooks and periodicals, including digitized archives of Psychotherapy Networker and Counseling Today.
